BIGGER-THAN-LIFE NAMES REQUIRE JEWELS TO MATCH, SO IS IT ANY WONDER THAT STATEMENT-MAKING, gem-laden bracelets are a favorite among celebrity stylists and their clients? Sleeveless gowns, perfect Southern California weather, and a night at the Kodak Theatre mean that some high-profile, bare arms need dressing. Enter the oversize cuff: Yellow gold complements outfits with warm hues, and platinum is perfect for cooler-toned combinations. Choices present colors for every taste, and enough glittering style to steal the show.

[1] The Orbit cuff features nearly 11.00 cts. t.w. sapphires set in 18k gold. NINA BASHAROVA; New York; (917) 557-6242; www.ninabasharova.com.

[2] An oval tanzanite is set in a tree branch- and scrollwork-inspired platinum cuff and is surrounded by diamond pavé. A lane of diamond rondelles runs through the center of the piece. ANTHONY NAK, Austin, Texas; (512) 454-7029; www.anthonynak.com.

[3] The Effervescence cuff features 32.00 cts. t.w. of Hearts On Fire cut diamonds set in 18k white gold. HEARTS ON FIRE, Boston; (877) PERFECT; www.heartsonfire.com.

[4] A cuff from the Stern Star collection features a new diamond cut dubbed Star. Materials include nearly 30.00 cts. t.w. of black and colorless diamonds set in 18k Noble—a mix of yellow and white—gold. H. STERN; New York; (800) 7 HSTERN; www.hstern.net.
